[REDACTED] I suggested to Cohen that he handle this in a very general way referring to the Katzenbach Committee recommendations which were approved by the President thereby avoiding any specific statement which would in any way acknowledge that the Agency had at one time given support to this organization. This was a very acceptable solution to Cohen and I provided him with a copy of the Katzenbach report.

7. [REDACTED] Miss Donner, in the office of Representative Silvio Conte, called this morning to say that the Congressman would be free for a few minutes this morning if Mr. Colby, Chief, FE Division, was available to brief him on the Pacification Program. She acknowledged the fact that her request was made on extremely short notice and, when she was advised that Mr. Colby had other commitments this morning, said that she would contact us again, hopefully with more notice.
